Major General
Charles C. Rogers

General Rogers, A Distinguished Military Graduate of the West Virginia State College Army ROTC in 1951, was born in Claremont, West Virginia on September 6, 1929.

As a Lieutenant Colonel serving in Vietnam, he became one of the few Americans and the only West Virginia State graduate to win this nation's highest award for heroism—The Congressional Medal of Honor. He distinguished himself by conspicuous gallantry in action on November 1, 1968 as Commander, 1st Battalion, 5th Artillery, 1st Infantry Division during the defense of a forward fire support base in the Republic of Vietnam. As the enemy launched continuous human wave ground assaults, with complete disregard for his own safety, Lt. Col. Rogers moved through a hail of enemy fire to direct artillery fire and led his troops in the ground counter attacks against the enemy. Although severely wounded, Lt. Col. Rogers continued to direct his men until the enemy was defeated and repelled.

His medals and awards are the Medal of Honor, Legion of Merit (with Oakleaf Cluster) Distinguished Flying Cross, Bronze Star Medal with V Device and 3 Oakleaf Clusters, Air Medal (10 awards), Joint Service Commendation Medal, Army Commendation Medal (with 3 Oakleaf Clusters), Purple Heart, and Parachutist Badge. General Rogers attended West Virginia State College and Shippensburg State College where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in General Mathematics and a Master of Science in Vocational Educational Guidance, respectively.

His assignments include tours of duty with Artillery Units at Fort Hood, Texas, Fort Campbell, Kentucky, Fort Devens, Massachusetts, and in Germany, Korea, and Vietnam. He has held command positions at Battery Battalion, Group, Corp Artillery, and Corps Levels. His key staff assignments have been in the office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Military Operations, Pentagon, and as Deputy Chief of Staff for ROTC, Training and Doctrine Command, Fort Monroe, Virginia.

His military schools include the Artillery School, Army Command and General Staff College, and the Army War College.

General Rogers is now the Deputy Commanding General for V Corps, US Army Europe.

Major General Harvey D. Williams

General Williams, a Distinguished Military Graduate of West Virginia State College Army ROTC in 1950, was born on July 30, 1930 in Whiteville, North Carolina.

The military schools he attended were The Artillery School, Basic and Advanced Courses; The Armed Forces Staff College; United States Naval War College.

His assignments as a commander include three Batteries, one in combat-Korea, one in CONUS and one in Germany; two Battalions, one in combat-Vietnam, one in CONUS; a Field Artillery Group-Ft. Sill, Oklahoma; a Post-Fort Myer, Virginia; Deputy Commanding General, Military District of Washington; a Corps Artillery—VII Corps Arty; a Community-Augsburg, Germany.

Highlights of his staff duty assignments include Department of the Army—Office of the Asst. Chief of Staff, Intelligence and Office of Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel; State Department-Arms Control and Disarmament.

His medals and awards are the Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal (with Oak Leaf Cluster), Meritorious Service Medal (with Oak Leaf Cluster), Air Medal (with 4 Oak Leaf Clusters), Army Commendation Medal (with 4 Oak Leaf Clusters). His source of Commission was ROTC (West Virginia State College).

General Williams is now the Deputy Inspector General of the US Army.

Brigadier General
Dallas C. Brown, Jr.

Brigadier General Dallas C. Brown, Jr., a Distinguished Military Graduate of Army ROTC at West Virginia State College in 1954, was born in New Orleans, Louisiana on August 21, 1932.

Among his assignments have been Platoon Leader and Battery Executive Officer, 2d Airborne Battle Group, 325th Infantry, 82d Airborne Division, Fort Bragg, North Carolina; Assistant G-2 (Operations), HQ 3d Armored Division, US Army Europe-Germany; Battery Commander, Operations Officer, and Battalion Executive Officer, 2d Battalion, 6th Artillery, U.S. Army Europe-Germany; Commander, 519th Military Intelligence Battalion, 525th Military Intelligence Group, United States Army Pacific-Vietnam; Intelligence Estimator, Soviet/East European Division, Directorate for Estimates, Defense Intelligence Agency, Washington, D.C.; Commander, U.S. Army Field Station, Deputy Chief of Staff Intelligence, US Army, Army Forces Command, Ft. McPherson, GA.

General Brown holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in History and Political Science from West Virginia State College and a Master of Arts Degree in Government (Russian Area Studies) from Indiana University.

His military education includes the Infantry Basic Course, the Artillery Advanced Course, U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, USA Russian Institute, United States Naval War College (Distinguished Graduate), and the Defense Language Institute (Russian and German) as well as the National Senior Cryptologic Officer's Course.

In his more than 25 year career, General Brown's awards include the Meritorious Service Medal (2 Oakleaf Clusters) Joint Service Commendation Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Master Parachutist Badge and Aircraft Crewman Badge.

1. There is a place we love so dear — Its name we'll ever praise and re-vere — 'Tis West Vir-gin-ia

REFRAIN

State we love — Just one more step from there is heav'n a - bove. — West Vir- gin - ia's praise we'll sing — Lift our voic-es 'till heav-ens ring — As we gai - ly march a-long — We'll sing a song — for Al-ma Mater How we love her pride of all our loy-al hearts — From her we will never part — Thoughts of thee will ne'er be few — Al-ma Ma-ter we love you —

We'll love her more as days go by,
 And send her praises to the sky;
 To place her over all the rest,
 And keep her e'er the dearest and the best.

Shadowed 'neath a deep blue sky;
 Is State for whom we'll live and we'll die—
 Arise! O men of God and sing;
 We're loyal, and to her we'll always cling.
